- (1) The Administrator of a Company must perform his functions with the objective of:
 - (A) rescuing the Company, or the whole or any part of its undertaking, as a going concern;
 - (B) achieving a better result for the Company's creditors as a whole than would be likely if the Company were wound up without first being in administration; and
 - (C) realising property in order to make a distribution to one or more Secured Creditors.
- (2) Subject to (4), the Administrator of a Company must perform his functions in the interests of the Company's creditors as a whole.
- (3) The Administrator must perform his functions with the objective specified in (1)(A) unless he thinks either:
 - (A) that it is not reasonably practicable to achieve that objective; or
 - (B) that the objective specified in (1)(B) would achieve a better result for the Company's creditors as a whole.
- (4) The Administrator may perform his functions with the objective specified in (1)(C) only if:
 - (A) he thinks that it is not reasonably practicable to achieve either of the objectives specified in (1)(A) and (B); and
 - (B) he does not harm the interests of the creditors of the Company as a whole unless it is necessary to do so.
- (5) The Administrator of a Company must perform his functions as quickly and efficiently as is reasonably practicable.

SECTION 2 – APPLICATION FOR, AND MAKING OF, THE ADMINISTRATION ORDER

ARTICLE 8 – ADMINISTRATION ORDER

- (3) The Administration Order shall specify the purpose or purposes for which it is made.
- (4) An Administration Order shall not be made in relation to a Company after it has gone into Liquidation.

- (2) On hearing an application the QFC Court may dismiss it, or adjourn the hearing conditionally or unconditionally, or make an interim order or any other order that it thinks fit.

ARTICLE 10 – WITNESS STATEMENT TO SUPPORT APPLICATION

- (1) Where it is proposed to apply to the QFC Court for an Administration Order to be made in relation to a Company, a witness statement complying with Article 12 below must be prepared, with a view to its being filed in the QFC Court in support of the application.

- (3) The report shall specify the purposes which, in the opinion of the person preparing it, may be achieved for the Company by the making of an Administration Order, being purposes particularly specified in Article 7.

ARTICLE 12 – CONTENTS OF WITNESS STATEMENT

- (1) The witness statement shall state:

- (3) Details shall be given of any Security Interest known or believed to be held by creditors of the Company and whether in any case the Security Interest is such as to confer power on the holder to appoint an Administrator.
- (4) If any application has been made for the winding up of the Company, details of it shall be given in the witness statement, so far as within the immediate knowledge of the deponent.
- (5) If there are other matters which, in the opinion of those intending to make the application for an Administration Order, will assist the QFC Court in deciding whether to make such an order, those matters (so far as lying within the knowledge or belief of the deponent) shall also be stated.
- (6) If a report has been prepared for the Company under Article 11, that fact shall be stated. If not, an explanation shall be provided why no such report has been prepared.

- (2) If made by a single creditor, the application shall state his name and address for service.
- (3) If the application is made by the directors, it shall state that it is so made under Article 9; but from and after being made it is to be treated for all purposes as the application of the Company.
- (4) If the application is made by two or more creditors, it shall state that it is so made (naming them); but from and after being made it is to be treated for all purposes as the application of one only of them, named in the application as applying on behalf of himself and other creditors. An address for service for that one shall be specified.
- (5) The application shall specify the name and address for service of the person proposed to be appointed as Administrator; and it shall be stated that, to the best of the applicant's knowledge and belief, the person is qualified to act as an insolvency practitioner in relation to the Company.

 - (B) by reference to the time properly given by the insolvency practitioner (as officeholder) and his staff in attending to matters arising in the insolvency proceedings; or
 - (C) as a set amount.
- (3) It is for the Creditors' Committee (if there is one) to determine whether the remuneration is to be fixed under Article 135(2)(A), (B) or (C) and, if under Article 135(2)(A), to determine any percentage to be applied as there mentioned.

 - (D) the value and nature of the property with which he has to deal.
- (5) If no Creditors' Committee is established by the first meeting of creditors, the officeholder's remuneration may be fixed (in accordance with Article 135(2)) by a resolution of that first meeting of creditors; and Article 135(4) applies to them as it does to the Creditors' Committee.
- (6) If not fixed as above, the officeholder's remuneration shall, on his application, be fixed by the QFC Court.

- (4) The QFC Court may, if it appears to be a proper case, order the costs of the officeholder's application, including the costs of any member of the Creditors' Committee appearing or being represented on it, or any creditor so appearing or being represented, to be paid as an expense of the insolvency proceedings.

ARTICLE 138 – CREDITORS' CLAIM THAT REMUNERATION IS EXCESSIVE

- (2) The QFC Court may, if it thinks that no sufficient cause is shown for a reduction, dismiss the application; but it shall not do so unless the applicant has had an opportunity to attend the QFC Court for an ex parte hearing, of which he has been given at least seven days' notice.
- (3) If the application is not dismissed under Article 138(2), the QFC Court shall fix a venue for it to be heard, and give notice to the applicant accordingly.

- (4) This Article 200 does not apply where the person entering into the contract is a designated exchange or designated clearing house acting in accordance with its rules, or where the contract is effected or cleared under the default rules of such an exchange or clearing house; but this Article 200 applies in relation to the provision of margin in relation to such a contract.

- (3) Before giving such a direction the QFC Authority shall consult the exchange or clearing house in question; and it shall not give a direction unless it is satisfied, in the light of that consultation:
 - (A) in the case of a direction to take action, that failure to take action would involve undue risk to investors or other participants in the market; or
 - (B) in the case of a direction not to take action, that the taking of action would be premature or otherwise undesirable in the interests of investors or other participants in the market; or
 - (C) in either case, that the direction is necessary having regard to the public interest in the stability of the financial system in the State.

The QFC Authority shall not give such a direction unless it is satisfied that it will not impede or frustrate the proper and efficient conduct of the default proceedings.
- (8) A direction under this Article is enforceable, on the application of the QFC Authority, by injunction; and where an exchange or clearing house has not complied with a direction, the QFC Court may make such order as it thinks fit for restoring the position to what it would have been if the direction had been complied with.
