PART 1 – GENERAL PROVISIONS

ARTICLE 1 – CITATION

These regulations may be referred to as the Special Company Regulations ("SCR") or "Regulations".

ARTICLE 2 – APPLICATION

These Regulations are made by the Minister pursuant to Article 9 of the QFC Law and shall apply in the QFC. To the fullest extent permitted by the QFC Law, the laws, rules and regulations of the State concerning the matters dealt with by or under these Regulations shall not apply in the QFC.

ARTICLE 3 – COMMENCEMENT

These Regulations shall come into force on the date of their signature by the Minister.

ARTICLE 4 – LANGUAGE

In accordance with Article 9 of the QFC Law, these Regulations are written in the English language and the English text thereof shall be the official original text. Any translation into another language shall not be authoritative and in the event of any discrepancy between the English text of these Regulations and any other version, the English text shall prevail.

ARTICLE 5 – INTERPRETATION

Words and expressions used in these Regulations and interpretative provisions applying to these Regulations are set out in Part 5 of these Regulations.

ARTICLE 6 – COMPANIES REGULATIONS REFERENCES

For the purposes of these Regulations and where appropriate, reference to the terms "Limited Liability Company" or "LLC" in the Companies Regulations shall be read as references to "Special Company", "Holding Company" or "Special Purpose Company" as set out in these Regulations.

ARTICLE 7 – POWER OF QFC AUTHORITY AND THE REGULATORY AUTHORITY TO MAKE RULES

The QFC Authority and the Regulatory Authority, each within the scope of their jurisdiction, authority or powers, may make rules to the extent set out in the QFC Law, these Regulations and any other regulations as is necessary or appropriate to implement, carry out or enforce these Regulations.

ARTICLE 8 – INTERACTION WITH THE QFC LAW, QFC REGULATIONS AND RULES

- 8.1 These Regulations are made in accordance with and take effect under the QFC Law. If there is any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of these Regulations and the QFC Law, the QFC Law has precedence and the relevant provision will be construed and applied only in a consistent manner with the QFC Law.
- 8.2 Except where the contrary is expressly stated, these Regulations do not affect any other QFC regulations made under the QFC Law which apply to a Special Company.
- 8.3 These Regulations do not permit or authorise a Special Company to carry on any Regulated Activity in or from the QFC, other than Special Purpose Company Activity or Holding Company Activity, as the case may be, without prior authorisation of the Regulatory Authority.
- 8.4 The provisions of these Regulations do not exempt a Special Company from any requirements resulting from the FSR and any of the Regulatory Authority rules to which a Special Company is subject. If there is any conflict between these Regulations and the FSR or any Regulatory Authority's rules, the FSR or rules will take precedence.
- 8.5 Subject to Article 8.1, if there is any conflict between these Regulations and the Companies Regulations, these Regulations will take precedence.

PART 2 – SPECIAL PURPOSE COMPANY

ARTICLE 9 – SPECIAL PURPOSE COMPANY ACTIVITY

9.1 A Special Purpose Company is a company incorporated under the Companies Regulations and registered by the CRO as a Special Purpose Company. A Special Purpose Company may only be established for the Purpose of a Transaction. Subject to the terms of its Licence, a Special Purpose Company may only carry on one or more of the following activities (“Special Purpose Company Activities”):

- (a) the acquisition (by way of leasing, title transfer, risk transfer or otherwise), the holding and the disposal of any asset (tangible or intangible, including but not limited to receivables, shares, real or personal rights, interests, options or privileges of any kind whatsoever in, over or in respect of any such asset);
- (b) the obtaining of any type of financing (banking or capital markets), the granting of any type of security interest, the provision of any indemnity or similar support or the entering into any type of loan or hedging arrangements, including to secure the repayment of any money borrowed, raised or owed or any other obligation of or binding on the Special Purpose Company by mortgage, charge, standard security, lien or other security upon the whole or any part of the Special Purpose Company's property or assets (whether present or future), including its uncalled capital;
- (c) the financing of the Initiator or any other Person;
- (d) the carrying out of any of the following activities:
 - (i) to act as trust administrator or agent for any participant in a Transaction;
 - (ii) to enter into arrangements or grant licences in respect of intellectual property rights, know-how, confidential information or trade secrets;
 - (iii) to issue any shares or enter into any agreements which provide for the issue or allotment of, or grant any Person the right to call for the issue or allotment of, any share or loan capital; and
 - (iv) to subscribe for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, hold, sell, deal with and dispose of, place and underwrite shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stocks, bonds, sukuks, obligations or securities issued or guaranteed by any other Entity or any government or authority, municipal, local or otherwise, including in the State or overseas;

- (e) any other activity approved in writing by the QFC Authority that falls within the Permitted Activities identified in paragraphs 10 to 15 of Schedule 3 of the QFC Law, or qualifies as an exemption under Schedule 3 of the FSR, including, to invest and deal with the moneys of the Special Purpose Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined and to hold or otherwise deal with any investments made;
- (f) any other activity approved in writing by the QFC Authority that is ancillary to the Purpose of the Transaction. Such activities may include any of the following:
 - (i) to acquire an interest in, amalgamate with, enter into partnership with or enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, for co-operation, for joint venture, for mutual assistance or otherwise with any Person;
 - (ii) to acquire, undertake and carry on the whole or any part of the activities, goodwill, property and assets of any Person and, as part of the consideration for such acquisition, to undertake any of the liabilities of such Person;
 - (iii) to arrange to improve, manage, construct, repair, develop, exchange, let or otherwise, mortgage, charge, sell, dispose of, turn to account, grant licences, options, rights and privileges in respect of, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Special Purpose Company;
 - (iv) to enter into an arrangement to secure or become responsible for the performance of any obligations or the discharge of any liabilities of or by any Person in any manner on any terms and for any purposes whatsoever;
 - (v) to sell, lease, exchange, let on hire, or dispose of any real or personal property or the undertaking of the Special Purpose Company, or any part or parts thereof, for such consideration as the directors shall approve;
 - (vi) to act as agents or as trustees for any Person, and to arrange performance of sub-contracts; and
 - (vii) to distribute among the Shareholders any property of the Special Purpose Company or any other subsidiary of the Special Purpose Company of whatsoever nature;
- (g) activities that the QFC Authority, in consultation with the QFC Regulatory Authority, is satisfied fall within any of paragraphs 1 to 9 of Schedule 3 of the QFC Law and which are not carried on by way of business within the meaning of Article 25 of the FSR. Such activities may include any of the following:

- (i) to take deposits or give credit on any terms with or without security to a Person;
- (ii) to give or award pensions, annuities, gratuities, and superannuation or other allowances or benefits and generally to provide advantages, facilities and services for any Persons who are or have been directors of, or who are or have been employed by, or who are serving or have served, the Special Purpose Company or the Initiator's Group or the predecessors in the business of the Special Purpose Company or the Initiator's Group and to the wives, widows, children and other relatives and dependants of such Persons; to make payments towards insurance; and to set up, establish, support and maintain superannuation and other funds or schemes (whether contributory or non-contributory) for the benefit of any of such Persons and of their wives, widows, children and other relatives and dependants;
- (iii) to arrange to insure the life of any Person or to arrange to insure against any accident to any Person who may, in the opinion of the directors, be of value to the Special Purpose Company or the Initiator's Group and to pay the premiums on such insurance; and
- (iv) to arrange to insure any Person on behalf of the Special Purpose Company or the Initiator's Group and to pay the premiums on such insurance.

9.2 A Special Purpose Company may hold property for a third party whether on trust or otherwise and the Special Purpose Company may hold such property by taking physical possession of the property, by holding documents of title to, or other evidence of ownership of the property or by being registered as the owner of the property.

9.3 Subject to the terms of its Licence, a Special Purpose Company is prohibited from carrying on any activities other than the Special Purpose Company Activities.

ARTICLE 10 – EXEMPTIONS FROM THE COMPANIES REGULATIONS

Unless otherwise provided in these Regulations or directed to do so in writing by the QFC Authority, Part 3A, Part 4, Part 6 and Part 7 of the Companies Regulations do not apply to Special Purpose Companies.

ARTICLE 11 – NOT USED

ARTICLE 12 – SHAREHOLDERS

- 12.1 A Special Purpose Company may have any one or more of the following types of Shareholders:
- (a) a nominee holding the shares in the Special Purpose Company on trust for discretionary purposes;
 - (b) the Initiator or other participants in the Transaction;
 - (c) another Special Purpose Company.
- 12.2 For the purposes of Article 12.1(a) a nominee may be either:
- (a) a body corporate incorporated in the QFC; or
 - (b) a body corporate incorporated outside the QFC, if the QFC Authority has confirmed in writing that it does not object to the proposed Person acting as a nominee.
- 12.3 A Special Purpose Company may not register a transfer of shares in the Special Purpose Company until the QFC Authority has confirmed in writing that it does not object to such transfer.
- 12.4 The QFC Authority may provide by way of Rules for the manner in which a Special Purpose Company shall apply to it for the confirmation required under Article 12.3.

ARTICLE 13 – MEETINGS

- 13.1 A Special Purpose Company is not required to hold an annual meeting of its Members.
- 13.2 If a Special Purpose Company does not hold a meeting of its Members, Article 69 of the Companies Regulations shall not apply to that Special Purpose Company.

ARTICLE 14 – DIRECTORS, SECRETARY AND SENIOR EXECUTIVE FUNCTION

- 14.1 A Special Purpose Company shall have a minimum of one director which may be a Person that is a natural person or a body corporate. If a director is a body corporate, the Special Purpose Company shall, before incorporation or promptly on appointment of the body corporate, furnish to the CRO copies of its up to date constitutional documents, and full details of its legal owners (including any changes from time to time to such documents or information). The Special Purpose Company must provide such further information as the CRO may require regarding the legal owners of the body corporate.

- 14.2 The CRO may publish similar information about the body corporate acting as a director of a Special Purpose Company as it would have published had the director been a natural person. The CRO shall not make available on the CRO's public register or to the public, information regarding legal owners of the corporate director supplied in accordance with Article 14.1, except pursuant to either a statutory obligation or an order of the QFC Court to disclose the information and, in such cases, the CRO may make available such information on terms it considers appropriate.
- 14.3 A Special Purpose Company shall appoint a secretary which may be a natural person, a body corporate or a Support Services Provider, or a subsidiary of the Support Services Provider.
- 14.4 In respect of a Special Purpose Company, the director and secretary may be the same body corporate and the director, secretary and Senior Executive Function may be the same natural person.
- 14.5 Where relevant holding more than one appointment shall not be in contravention of any requirements or restrictions on a sole director performing the functions of a secretary and a director. For the purposes of the Companies Regulations, any acts validly carried out by the Person performing one or more of these functions for the Special Purpose Company shall be deemed to satisfy any corporate capacity, quorum and procedural requirements of the Companies Regulations.
- 14.6 Where a Person performs more than one function of the director, secretary and Senior Executive Function, that Person shall ensure that he avoids or manages any conflicts of interests that arise in the performance of more than one function.
- 14.7 Unless it has engaged the services of the Support Services Provider to perform the functions of a director or secretary, a Special Purpose Company shall ensure:
 - (a) in the case of a natural person that performs the functions of a director or secretary, that at least one of its director(s) or secretary is resident in the State; or
 - (b) in the case of body corporate that performs the functions of a director or secretary, that at least one of its director(s) or secretary which is a body corporate has a registered office in the State.
- 14.8 A Special Purpose Company may comply with all or any of its obligations regarding appointment of a Senior Executive Function under Rule 11.3 of the QFCA Rules through the appointment of a natural person from the Support Services Provider.

- 14.9 A Special Purpose Company shall file a notice with the CRO of any change to its directors or its secretary within twenty-one days of the change of the director or secretary, as the case may be, using the Prescribed Form and paying the Prescribed Fee. In the case of a change in a corporate director, the Special Purpose Company shall, at the time of filing the notice of change, supply to the CRO the information prescribed in Article 14.1 concerning such a director.

ARTICLE 15 – ACCOUNTS AND AUDIT

A Special Purpose Company is not required to appoint auditors, have its accounts examined and reported on by auditors, or to lay its accounts before a meeting of its Members, or file such accounts with the CRO, unless it is directed to do so in writing by the QFC Authority.

ARTICLE 16 – REPORTING

- 16.1 A Special Purpose Company must file a notice with the CRO of any of the following changes using the Prescribed Form and paying the Prescribed Fee within twenty-one days of their occurrence:
- (a) any change concerning its Support Services Provider; and
 - (b) any change to its Shareholders or its legal owners or Beneficial Owners subject to Article 12.3.

ARTICLE 17 – ANNUAL RETURN

Article 47 and Article 48 of the Companies Regulations shall not apply to a Special Purpose Company.

ARTICLE 18 – DISSOLUTION

- 18.1 A Special Purpose Company may only be wound up voluntarily under Article 58 of the Insolvency Regulations if, at the time the Special Purpose Company resolves it should be wound up, it has no outstanding liabilities.
- 18.2 The fact of the dissolution of a Special Purpose Company shall be published on the CRO public register.

ARTICLE 19 – INSOLVENCY REGULATIONS

- 19.1 For the purposes of a Special Purpose Company, "company's property" shall mean any property of the Special Purpose Company other than property under administration.

- 19.2 For the purposes of the Insolvency Regulations, there shall be no preferential debts or preferential creditors in relation to a Special Purpose Company.
- 19.3 For the purposes of Article 92 of the Insolvency Regulations, Special Purpose Company Activity and obligations arising from a Special Purpose Company Activity shall be exempt from disclaimer by a liquidator as onerous property.
- 19.4 Articles 143 and 145 of the Insolvency Regulations shall not apply to a Special Purpose Company.

PART 3 – HOLDING COMPANY

ARTICLE 20 – HOLDING COMPANY ACTIVITY

20.1 A Holding Company is a Company incorporated under the Companies Regulations and registered by the CRO as a Holding Company. Subject to the terms of its Licence, a Holding Company may only carry on any one or more of the following activities (“Holding Company Activities”):

- (a) owning and maintaining one or more Subsidiary;
- (b) granting any type of security interest over its assets (tangible or intangible, including but not limited to receivables, shares, real or personal rights, interests, options or privileges of any kind whatsoever in, over or in respect of any such asset) for its own benefit or for the benefit of any Entity within the Holding Company Group;
- (c) providing an indemnity, guarantee or similar support to any third party for its own benefit or for the benefit of any Entity within the Holding Company Group;
- (d) the acquisition, holding or disposal of any interest in any asset whether tangible or intangible for its own benefit or for the benefit of any Entity within the Holding Company Group;
- (e) providing any type of loan or other form of financing to any Entity within the Holding Company Group;
- (f) any activities which are ancillary to the activities set out under (a) to (e) above; and
- (g) any other activity approved in writing by the QFC Authority that falls within the Permitted Activities identified in paragraphs 12, 14, or 15, Part 2, Schedule 3 of the QFC Law, or qualifies as an exemption under Schedule 3 of the FSR.

20.2 The Subsidiaries of a Holding Company and other companies that may be established by the Holding Company within the Holding Company Group may be, but are not required to be, incorporated in the QFC.

20.3 A Holding Company must not engage:

- (a) in activities with any Persons that are not its Shareholders or do not form part of its Holding Company Group unless expressly provided for in Article 20.1; and
- (b) in any Regulated Activity with any Persons that do not form part of its Holding Company Group unless it is duly authorised by the Regulatory Authority in relation to the conduct of such Regulated Activity.

ARTICLE 20A – DIRECTOR, SECRETARY OR SENIOR EXECUTIVE FUNCTION OF A HOLDING COMPANY

- 20A.1 A Holding Company shall have a minimum of one director which may be a Person that is a natural person or a body corporate. If a director is a body corporate, the Holding Company shall, before incorporation or promptly on appointment of the body corporate, furnish to the CRO copies of its up to date constitutional documents, full details of its legal owners (including any changes from time to time to such documents or information). The Holding Company must provide such further information as the CRO may require regarding the legal owners of the body corporate.
- 20A.2 The CRO may publish similar information about the body corporate acting as a director of a Holding Company as it would have published had the director been a natural person. The CRO shall not make available on the CRO's public register or to the public, information regarding legal owners of the corporate director supplied in accordance with Article 20A.1, except pursuant to either a statutory obligation or an order of the QFC Court to disclose the information and, in such cases, the CRO may make available such information on terms it considers appropriate.
- 20A.3 A Holding Company shall appoint a secretary which may be a natural person, a body corporate or a Support Services Provider, or a subsidiary of the Support Services Provider.
- 20A.4 In respect of a Holding Company, the director and secretary may be the same body corporate and the director, secretary and Senior Executive Function may be the same natural person.
- 20A.5 Where relevant, holding more than one appointment shall not be in contravention of any requirements or restrictions on a sole director performing the functions of a secretary and a director. For the purposes of the Companies Regulations, any acts validly carried out by the Person performing one or more of these functions for the Holding Company shall be deemed to satisfy any corporate capacity, quorum and procedural requirements of the Companies Regulations.
- 20A.6 Where a Person performs more than one function of the director, secretary and Senior Executive Function, that Person shall ensure that he avoids or manages any conflicts of interests that arise in the performance of more than function.

20A.7 Unless it has engaged the services of the Support Services Provider to perform the functions of a director or secretary, a Holding Company shall ensure:

- (a) in the case of a natural person that performs the functions of a director or secretary, that at least one of its director(s) or secretary is resident in the State; or
- (b) in the case of body corporate that performs the functions of a director or secretary, that at least one of its director(s) or secretary which is a body corporate has a registered office in the State.

20A.8 A Holding Company may comply with all or any of its obligations regarding appointment of a Senior Executive Function under Rule 11.3 of the QFCA Rules through the appointment of a natural person from the Support Services Provider.

20A.9 A Holding Company shall file a notice with the CRO of any change to its directors or its secretary within twenty-one days of the change of the director or secretary, as the case may be, using the Prescribed Form and paying the Prescribed Fee. In the case of a change in a corporate director, the Holding Company shall, at the time of filing the notice of change, supply to the CRO the information prescribed in Article 20A.1 concerning such a director.

ARTICLE 21 – ACCOUNTS AND AUDIT

A Holding Company that is Passive is not required to appoint auditors, have its accounts examined and reported on by auditors, or to lay its accounts before a meeting of its Members, or file such accounts with the CRO, unless it is directed to do so in writing by the QFC Authority.

ARTICLE 22 – EXEMPTIONS FROM THE COMPANIES REGULATIONS

22.1 Unless otherwise provided in these Regulations or directed to do so in writing by the QFC Authority, Part 3A, Part 4, Part 6 and Part 7 of the Companies Regulations do not apply to a Holding Company.

22.2 Article 47 and Article 48 of the Companies Regulations shall not apply to a Holding Company that is Passive.

22.3 A Holding Company is not required to hold an annual meeting of its Members.

22.4 If a Holding Company does not hold a meeting, Article 69 of the Companies Regulations shall not apply to that Holding Company.

ARTICLE 23 – EXEMPTIONS FROM THE COMPANIES REGULATIONS FOR THE STATE’S HOLDING COMPANIES

- 23.1 Unless otherwise provided in these Regulations or directed to do so in writing by the QFC Authority, a Holding Company who is ultimately wholly owned by the Government of the State:
- (a) shall not be subject to Part 3A, Part 4, Part 6 and Part 7 of the Companies Regulations;
 - (b) shall not be subject to Article 47 and Article 48 of the Companies Regulations; and
 - (c) is not required to appoint auditors, have its accounts examined and reported on by auditors, or to lay its accounts before a meeting of its Members, or file its accounts with the CRO.

ARTICLE 23A – REPORTING

- 23A.1 A Holding Company must file a notice with the CRO of any of the following changes using the Prescribed Form and paying the Prescribed Fee within twenty-one days of their occurrence:
- (a) any change concerning its Support Services Provider, if one is appointed; and
 - (b) any change to its Shareholders or its legal owners or Beneficial Owners subject to Article 23B.

ARTICLE 23B – SHARE TRANSFERS

- 23B.1 A Holding Company may not register a transfer of shares in the Holding Company until the QFC Authority has confirmed in writing that it does not object to such transfer.
- 23B.2 The QFC Authority may provide by way of Rules for the manner in which a Holding Company shall apply to it for the confirmation required under Article 23A.1.

ARTICLE 23C – [INTENTIONALLY OMITTED]

PART 4 – PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO BOTH A SPECIAL PURPOSE COMPANY AND A HOLDING COMPANY

ARTICLE 24 – INCORPORATION

- 24.1 For the purpose of Article 17(1) of the Companies Regulations, an application filed with the CRO must include a written undertaking from the Incorporator to the QFC Authority that:
- (a) sets out the purpose for which the Special Company is being established; and
 - (b) the Special Company shall only undertake either Special Purpose Company Activities or Holding Company Activities.
- 24.2 The QFC Authority may provide by way of Rules for the manner and circumstances in which the CRO may register a Company as a Special Company.
- 24.3 A Special Company must comply with the QFC licensing requirements prescribed in the QFC Authority Regulations.
- 24.4 A Special Company may only carry on activities that are provided for in the respective part of these Regulations and that are specified in its Licence.
- 24.5 The register maintained by the CRO will expressly set out the status of the company as a Special Company.
- 24.6 An applicant seeking to establish a Special Company as a body corporate in the QFC must comply with the formalities for formation, incorporation and registration set out in the Companies Regulations to the extent prescribed in the Rules.
- 24.7 A non-QFC Company may migrate to the QFC as a Special Company under Part 5 of the Companies Regulations and shall also be subject to these Regulations.

ARTICLE 25 – ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

- 25.1 The CRO may from time to time prescribe one or more sets of standard articles of association (which shall be in the English language) to be known as the Standard Articles of Association for Special Companies.
- 25.2 If the CRO prescribes Standard Articles of Association for Special Companies, a Special Company may, by reference, adopt for its articles of association the whole of the relevant Standard Articles of Association or may, by reference, adopt for its articles of association the Standard Articles of Association subject to such amendments as may be set out in its articles of association or may incorporate by reference in its articles of association such parts of the Standard Articles of Association as it shall deem fit.

- 25.3 If the Standard Articles of Association are altered by the CRO, the alteration will not affect the articles of association of a Special Company registered before the alteration takes effect.
- 25.4 If the Standard Articles of Association are not adopted, then the articles filed by the Special Company must, at a minimum, provide for all the requirements under Article 2.2.2 (A) to 2.2.2 (P) of the Companies Rules:
- (a) for the purposes of Article 17(2)(b) of the Companies Regulations, the purposes of a Special Company as set out in its Articles of Association must be to act as either a Special Purpose Company or a Holding Company as applicable and the activities that it is permitted to carry on must be limited to Special Purpose Company Activities or Holding Company Activities, as applicable;
 - (b) the articles of association of a Special Company must state the purpose of the Special Company and provide that the Special Company shall not carry on any activities of the type described in Paragraphs 1 to 9, Part 1, Schedule 3 of the QFC Law in or from the QFC by way of business; and
 - (c) the articles of association of a Special Purpose Company must provide that no transfer of shares in the Special Purpose Company shall take effect until the QFC Authority has confirmed in writing that it does not object to such transfer.
- 25.5 A Special Company must notify the CRO of any proposed amendments to its Articles of Association. A Special Company must give no less than twenty-one days' prior written notice on a Prescribed Form and for a Prescribed Fee to the CRO of any proposal to amend its Articles of Association. The CRO may consult with the QFC Authority or the Regulatory Authority as appropriate and may object to any proposed amendment if it is not in line with the status of a Special Company. A Special Company must file its amended Articles of Association with the CRO within twenty-one days of the amendment taking effect.

ARTICLE 26 – APPLICATION OF QFC AUTHORITY REGULATIONS AND RULES

- 26.1 Except as provided in Articles 8 and 9 of the QFC Law, the QFC Authority may, on the application of a Person in the QFC, or on its own initiative, by means of a written notice, provide that one or more provisions of these Regulations or other regulations made by the Minister pursuant to Article 9 of the QFC Law or the rules made pursuant to Article 12(1) of the QFC Authority Regulations either:

- (a) shall apply to one or more Persons or class of Persons with such modifications as may be specified in the written notice; or
- (b) shall not apply in relation to one or more Persons or class of Persons.

26.2 The QFC Authority shall consult with the Regulatory Authority in issuing any notice under this Article that may reasonably be expected to have a bearing on the duties, objectives and functions of the Regulatory Authority and may not issue a notice under this Article in respect of one or more Authorised Firms unless the Regulatory Authority has consented in writing to the issue of the notice.

26.3 The QFC Authority must be satisfied, when giving a notice under this Article in relation to one or more Persons or class of Persons, that:

- (a) either:
 - (i) the burden experienced by one or more Persons or class of Persons in complying with the relevant regulation or rule would significantly outweigh the benefits that the regulation or rule was intended to achieve; or
 - (ii) compliance with the regulation or rule would not achieve or further the purpose for which the relevant regulation or rule was made; and
- (b) the notice would not result in undue risk to one or more Persons or class of Persons whose interests the regulation or rule is intended to protect.

26.4 A written notice under this Article may be given subject to conditions.

26.5 Where the QFC Authority is satisfied that it is in the interests of the QFC to do so, it may publish a written notice issued under this Article in such a way (including publication on its website) as it considers appropriate for bringing the notice to the attention of:

- (a) those likely to be affected by it; and
- (b) others who may be likely to become subject to a similar notice.

26.6 The QFC Authority may on application by one or more Persons or class of Persons to whom a notice applies, or on its own initiative:

- (a) revoke a written notice; or
- (b) vary a written notice.

- 26.7 With respect to the publication of a revocation or variation, this Article applies analogously.
- 26.8 The QFC Authority may issue rules, in particular with respect to the provision of a written notice and the procedures in relation thereto.
- 26.9 Any decision of the QFC Authority with respect to the granting or refusal of a waiver or modification of regulations or rules pursuant to this Article may be referred to the QFC Regulatory Tribunal by one or more Persons or class of Persons to whom the waiver or modification relates (or would relate if granted).
- 26.10 This Article does not apply to any regulations:
- (a) made with the consent of the Council of Ministers; or
 - (b) in relation to which the Regulatory Authority has been conferred duties, functions and powers; or
 - (c) which expressly do not permit any such waiver.

ARTICLE 27 - REGISTERED OFFICE AND SUPPORT SERVICES PROVIDER

- 27.1 A Special Purpose Company must appoint and at all times retain a Support Services Provider. A Holding Company may appoint a Support Service Provider. A Support Service Provider shall provide a Special Company with one or more of the following services:
- (a) management and administrative services;
 - (b) services as a registered agent, director or similar officer (including, where permitted, to provide the Senior Executive Function);
 - (c) provision of a registered office, place of business or address; and
 - (d) any of the services at Article 27.1 (a) to (c), and such other services as may be prescribed or directed from time to time by the QFC Authority.
- 27.2 Where the Incorporator of the Special Company is a QFC Licensed Firm, the Special Company may, with the approval of the QFC Authority, satisfy a requirement under Article 27.1 of these Regulations if the Incorporator performs one or more of the relevant functions of the Support Service Provider for the Special Company.
- 27.3 For the purposes of Article 42 of the Companies Regulations:

- (a) where the Support Services Provider of a Special Company has a registered office in the QFC, the Special Company may use that office as its registered address; and
 - (b) where the Support Services Provider of a Special Company does not have a registered office in the QFC, the Special Company must itself maintain a registered address in the QFC and such address will be considered its registered office and principal business irrespective of the location of its Support Services Provider.
- 27.4 The QFC Authority may provide by Rules for the manner and circumstances in which a body corporate, partnership or limited liability partnership may be approved to act as a Support Services Provider for the purposes of this Article and the range of services that such entity may provide.
- 27.5 A Support Services Provider must ensure that it avoids or manages any conflicts of interests that arise as a result of:
- (a) the Support Services Provider carrying out one or more functions for a Special Company; or
 - (b) the Support Services Provider carrying out any other function or activity for a Person other than the Special Company that the Support Service Provider performs one or more functions for.
